Willingboro Man Charged with Distribution of Child Pornography

Burlington County Prosecutor LaChia L. Bradshaw and Willingboro Township Acting Public Safety Director Ian Bucs announced that a 24-year-old Willingboro man has been charged with uploading videos containing Child Sexual Abuse Material (CSAM).

Aaron C. Minor was charged with Distribution of Child Sexual Abuse Material (Second Degree), Possession of Child Sexual Abuse Material with the Intent to Distribute (Second Degree), and Possession of Child Sexual Abuse Material (Third Degree).

He was taken into custody August 9 during the execution of a search warrant at this residence. He was released following a first appearance in Superior Court. The case will now be prepared for presentation to a grand jury for possible indictment.

The investigation began after the BCPO High-Tech Crimes Unit was forwarded a tip that the New Jersey State Police received from the National Center for Missing & Exploited Children concerning Minor's online activities.

Multiple electronic devices were seized from his residence and will be examined by investigators from the High-Tech Crimes Unit.

The investigation was conducted by the BCPO High-Tech Crimes Unit, with assistance from the Willingboro Township Police Department and United States Homeland Security Investigations – Cherry Hill Office. The lead investigator is BCPO HTC Unit Detective Christian D'Alfonso.

The Burlington County Prosecutor's Office is a member of the New Jersey Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force.

All persons are considered innocent until proven guilty in a court of law.
